I am Betula nigra, but you can call me...

My leaves are a lustrous medium to dark green.
In the fall, my leaves are yellow.
I need full sun to grow my best.

When I am grown up in about 40 years, I will look like this...
I will be 40’ – 70’ tall and 40’ – 60’ in spread.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately this size...
Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy for any help you may need taking care of me.

Creating Canopy 2013
Spreading roots for a greener region
I am Cercis canadensis, but you can call me...

My leaves are a dark green.
In the spring, I have reddish purple buds.
I also have rosy pink flowers.
In the fall, my leaves are yellow to yellow-green.
I need full sun to grow my best.

When I am grown up in about 20 years, I will look like this...
I will be 20’ – 30’ tall and 25’ – 35’ in spread.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately this size...
Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy for any help you may need taking care of me.
I am Cornus x ‘Rutgan’ Stellar Pink, but you can call me...

My leaves are a deep green.
From spring to early summer, I have showy, pink flowers.
In the fall, my leaves are purple to red.
I need partial to full sun to grow my best.

When I am grown up in about 20 years, I will look like this...
I will be up to 20’ – 25’ tall and have an equal spread.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately this size...
Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy for any help you may need taking care of me.
I am Cornus florida ‘Cherokee Princess’, but you can call me...

When I grow up, I will look like this...
I will be 15’ – 30’ tall and have a spread of 15’ – 30’. I need full sun to light shade to grow my best. In the spring, I will have showy white flowers. My leaves are a dark green. In the fall, my leaves are rust-red.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately this size...
Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy for any help you may need taking care of me.
I am Liriodendron tulipifera, but you can call me...

My leaves are a deep green.
In spring, I have greenish yellow flowers.
In the fall, my leaves are golden yellow to yellow.
I need partial to full sun to grow my best.

When I am grown up in about 40 years, I will look like this...
I will be 70’ – 90’ tall and 35’ – 50’ in spread.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately this size...
Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to
http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy
for any help you may need taking care of me.
I am Quercus bicolor, but you can call me...

My leaves are a lustrous dark green above and below are grayish green and velvety. In the fall, my leaves are orangey-copper to red. I need part shade to full sun to grow my best.

When I grow up in about 40 years, I will look like this... I will be 50’ – 60’ tall and have an equal or greater spread.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately this size... Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy for any help you may need taking care of me.
I am Quercus phellos, but you can call me...

Willow Oak

My leaves are narrow and dark green.
In the spring, I have yellowish catkin flowers.
In the fall, my leaves are brownish-yellow or orangish-yellow.
I need full sun to grow my best.

When I am grown up in about 20-30 years, I will look like this...
I will be 40’ – 60’ tall and 30 - 40’ in spread.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately 4-6’ tall.
Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to
http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy
for any help you may need taking care of me.

Creating Canopy 2013
Spreading roots for a greener region
I am Cercis canadensis 'Forest Pansy', but you can call me...

Forest Pansy Redbud

My leaves are heart-shaped and reddish-purple. In the spring, I have reddish-purple flowers. In the fall, my leaves are purple or orange. I need full sun or part shade to grow my best.

When I am grown up in about 20 years, I will look like this... I will be 20’ – 30’ tall and 25’ – 35’ in spread.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately 4-6' tall. Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy for any help you may need taking care of me.

Creating Canopy 2013
Spreading roots for a greener region
I am Malus x 'Sutyzam' Sugar Tyme, but you can call me...

Sugartyme Crabapple

My leaves are a dark green.
In the spring, I have pale pink buds that blossom into white flowers.
In the fall, my leaves turn yellow, and I form red crabapples.
I need full sun to grow my best.

When I am grown up in about 10-20 years, I will look like this...
I will be 18’ tall and 15’ in spread.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately 4-6’ tall.
Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy for any help you may need taking care of me.
I am Prunus x 'Snow Goose'', but you can call me...

My leaves are bright green.
In the spring, I have showy white flowers.
In the fall, my leaves turn yellow.
I need full sun to grow my best.

When I grow up in 25-30 years, I will look like this...
I will be 20-25' tall, and have a spread of 20-25'.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately 4-6' tall.
Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to
http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy
for any help you may need taking care of me.
I am Prunus x yedoensis, but you can call me...

Yoshino Cherry

My leaves are dark green. In spring, I have light pink buds that blossom into white flowers. In the fall, my leaves are yellow to bronze. I need full sun to grow my best.

When I am grown up in about 20 years, I will look like this... I can get 35-40’ tall and 25-40’ in spread.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately 4-6’ tall.
Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy for any help you may need taking care of me.

Creating Canopy 2013

Spreading roots for a greener region
I am Cornus kousa, but you can call me...

Japanese Kousa Dogwood

My leaves are dark green.
In the spring, I have showy white flowers.
In the fall, my leaves are reddish-purple.
I need full sun to part shade to grow my best.

When I grow up in about 20 years, I will look like this...
I will be 15-25’ tall and have an equal or greater spread.

Until then, when you pick me up, I will be approximately 4-6' tall.
Please plant me within 2 days of getting me home and don’t forget to water me!

If you have any questions, go to
http://www.upenn.edu/sustainability/programs/creating-canopy for any help you may need taking care of me.